

Your role and purpose as a leader is to move your organization successfully from “What Is” to “What Ought to Be”

TeamWorks International is your partner in how to do it.
Are you ready?

Our proven competencies, processes, and tools develop Partnership Leadership in non-profit organizations seeking a different approach from the traditional top down way of implementing change. For over 22 years, we’ve heard the needs of organizations like yours and worked side-by-side with them across all levels to customize approaches that build the capacity of the employees and the leaders. Bottom line? People across the organization are more able to contribute to and own the goals and ways Vision is achieved.

Perhaps you need...

- A new way of leading that develops people’s capacity for system-wide partnership.
- To prepare your employees and stakeholders to understand and implement change.
- A relevant and connected strategic plan.
- An innovative approach to your changing market and/or demographics.
- Teams that work together more effectively and more humanely.
- More transparent ways of engaging your external partners and funders.

and seek a better way.
